DISCRETIONARY CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE PURSUANT TO 18 U.S.C § 3563(b) AND 18 U.S.C § 3583(d)

Discretionary Conditions — The court orders that the defendant abide by the following conditions during the term of supervised release because such conditions are reasonably related to the factors set forth in § 3553(a)(1) and (a)(2)(B), (C), and (D); such conditions involve only such deprivations of liberty or property as are reasonably necessary for the purposes indicated in § 3553 (a)(2) (B), (C), and (D); and such conditions are consistent with any pertinent policy statement issued by the Sentencing Commission pursuant to 28 U.S.C. 994a. The court imposes those conditions identified by checkmarks below:

The defendant shall, during the period of supervised release:

- ☐ (1) provide financial support to dependents if financially able.
- ☐ (2) make restitution to a victim of the offense under § 3556 (but not subject to the limitation of § 3663(a) or § 3663A(c)(1)(A)).
- ☐ (3) give to the victims of the offense notice pursuant to the provisions of § 3555, as follows: [redacted]
- ☐ (4) seek, and work conscientiously, at lawful employment or pursue conscientiously a course of study or vocational training that will equip the defendant for employment.
- ☐ (5) refrain from engaging in a specified occupation, business, or profession bearing a reasonably direct relationship to the conduct constituting the offense, or engage in such a specified occupation, business, or profession only to a stated degree or under stated circumstances; (if checked yes, please indicate restriction(s) [redacted]).
- ☒ (6) refrain from knowingly meeting or communicating with any person whom the defendant knows to be engaged, or planning to be engaged, in criminal activity and from:
 - ☐ visiting the following type of places: [redacted]
 - ☐ knowingly meeting or communicating with the following persons: [redacted]
- ☒ (7) refrain from excessive use of alcohol (defined as having a blood alcohol concentration greater than 0.08%), or any use of a narcotic drug or other controlled substance, as defined in § 102 of the Controlled Substances Act (21 U.S.C. § 802), without a prescription by a licensed medical practitioner.
- ☒ (8) refrain from possessing a firearm, destructive device, or other dangerous weapon.

only for a violation of a condition of supervised release in accordance with § 3583(e)(2) and only when facilities are available) for the following period [redacted].

- ☐ (11) (community confinement): reside at, or participate in the program of a community corrections facility (including a facility maintained or under contract to the Bureau of Prisons) for all or part of the term of supervised release, for a period of [redacted] months.

- ☐ (13) reside in the following place or area: [redacted], or refrain from residing in a specified place or area: [redacted].

☐ Compliance with this condition shall be monitored by telephonic or electronic signaling devices (the selection of which shall be determined by a probation officer). Electronic monitoring shall ordinarily be used in connection with home detention as it provides continuous monitoring of the defendant's whereabouts. Voice identification may be used in lieu of electronic monitoring to monitor home confinement and provides for random monitoring of the defendant's whereabouts. If the defendant is unable to wear an electronic monitoring device due to health or medical reasons, it is recommended that home confinement with voice identification be ordered, which will provide for random checks on the defendant's whereabouts. Home detention with electronic monitoring or voice identification is not deemed appropriate and cannot be effectively administered in cases in which the offender has no bona fide residence, has a history of violent behavior, serious mental health problems, or substance abuse; has pending criminal charges elsewhere; requires frequent travel inside or outside the district; or is required to work more than 60 hours per week.
☐ The defendant shall pay the cost of electronic monitoring or voice identification at the daily contractual rate, if the defendant is financially able to do so.

- ☒ (20) comply with the terms of any court order or order of an administrative process pursuant to the law of a State, the District of Columbia, or any other possession or territory of the United States, requiring payments by the defendant for the support and maintenance of a child or of a child and the parent with whom the child is living.
- ☐ (21) be surrendered to a duly authorized official of the Homeland Security Department for a determination on the issue of deportability by the appropriate authority in accordance with the laws under the Immigration and Nationality Act and the established implementing regulations. - ☒ (22) satisfy such other special conditions as ordered below.
- ☐ (23) (if required to register under the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act) submit at any time, with or without a warrant, to a search of the defendant's person and any property, house, residence, vehicle, papers, computer, other electronic communication or data storage devices or media, and effects, by any law enforcement or probation officer having reasonable suspicion concerning a violation of a condition of supervised release or unlawful conduct by the defendant, and by any probation officer in the lawful discharge of the officer's supervision functions (see special conditions section).
